

Your group has selected an exceptional insurer. Take advantage of it!

Insuring your property with The Personal gives you access to exclusive privileges. Why?

Because The Personal is Quebec's largest home and auto group insurance company and a leading Canadian insurer.

And because only the members or employees of organizations that have an agreement with The Personal, including the Caisse d'économie des employés en Télécommunication, can benefit from this special relationship. Which means that you can enjoy:

- Competitive rates lower than those usually available to the general public
- Personalized coverage
- First class service

With benefits like these, you get the best value on the market for your home and auto insurance.

Your group's agreement with The Personal entitles you to special privileges. Spouses and dependents are also eligible. Take advantage of it!

You will understand why 9 out of 10 policyholders renew their contract year after year and are satisfied with the service they get when they file a claim.¹
