

Candidate Presentation – Michael Delisle

I am currently the President and Chair of the Board of Directors of the caisse Populaire Kahnawake. I am up for re-selection and would like to continue to serve on the Board. I find the position interesting and is part of continuing community service and maintaining our internal governance structure. The responsibility is rewarding and continues to interest me in terms of community engagement.