

Under a new prospectus, Capital régional et coopératif Desjardins gains approval to sell the remaining $17 million in shares

Montréal, July 10, 2015 – The Autorité des marchés financiers has approved the new prospectus of Capital régional et coopératif Desjardins (CRCD) to continue with the sale of the remaining $17 million under its share issue. The sale will take place until February 29, 2016 or prior, if the $150 million maximum authorized amount for its 2015 issue is reached.

Investors interested in purchasing shares of CRCD may contact a Desjardins caisse immediately to make an appointment. It is not necessary to be or to become a member of a Desjardins caisse to purchase shares of CRCD, which are eligible for a Québec tax credit of 45% and must be held for a minimum period of seven years.

To make the product as widely available as possible, each investor will be limited to a maximum $3,000 investment.
