What's Loan Insurance for?

Loan Insurance helps repay your loan if you die or become disabled. It can be used to round out personal insurance or group coverage through your employer.

Since this coverage is for your loan, any benefit payments will be used to pay down or pay off your loan balance.

How does Loan Insurance work?

Am I eligible for coverage?

For personal loans, here's who can get Loan Insurance:

- A borrower, or
- A borrower's guarantor

For business loans, here's who can get Loan Insurance:

- A director, officer or owner of the business, or
- A guarantor for the business

To get Loan Insurance, you must be a resident of Canada. In other words, you must be legally authorized to reside in Canada and live here at least 6 months a year.

Is there an age limit for taking out coverage?

For life insurance

You need to be under 70.

For disability insurance

You need to be under 65.

Can I take out just life insurance or just disability insurance?

You have 2 options. You can get:

- Life insurance only, or
- Life insurance and disability insurance

How much coverage can I get?

For life insurance

If you die, your life insurance will cover the balance of your loan, based on the life insurance percentage you've selected. You can choose to insure between 10% and 100% of your loan balance.

For disability insurance

If you become disabled, the disability insurance will cover your regular payments, based on the disability percentage you've selected. You can choose to insure between 10% and 100% of your loan's regular payment. Keep in mind that your disability insurance percentage can't be higher than your life insurance percentage.

Are there coverage limits?

Yes, these maximums apply:

For life insurance

The maximum payable is $10,000,000 per insured person for all loans and lines of credit insured with these Desjardins Insurance products: Loan Insurance, Loan Insurance – Versatile Line of Credit and Line of Credit Insurance.

For disability insurance

The maximum payable is $10,000 a month per insured person for all loans and lines of credit insured with these Desjardins Insurance products: Loan Insurance, Loan Insurance – Versatile Line of Credit and Line of Credit Insurance.

How much is the benefit that's paid?

For life insurance

Here's how we calculate the amount we pay in the event of death:

$$\begin{array}{|c|} \hline \text{your loan balance on} \\ \text{the date of death} \\ \hline \end{array} \times \begin{array}{|c|} \hline \text{your life insurance} \\ \text{percentage} \\ \hline \end{array}$$

(multiplied by)

For disability insurance

If you become disabled, we'll pay an amount for each day of disability that you're entitled to benefits.

Here's how we calculate this amount:

$$\begin{array}{|c|} \hline \text{your regular} \\ \text{payment converted} \\ \text{into a monthly} \\ \text{amount} \\ \hline \end{array} \times \begin{array}{|c|} \hline \text{your disability} \\ \text{insurance} \\ \text{percentage} \\ \hline \end{array} \times \begin{array}{|c|} \hline 12 \\ \text{months} \\ \hline \end{array} \div \begin{array}{|c|} \hline 365 \\ \text{days} \\ \hline \end{array}$$

(multiplied by) (multiplied by) (divided by)

Do I have to meet any criteria to be considered disabled?

To be entitled to benefit payments, you must be suffering from a total disability. This means that:

- you must be disabled because of an illness or an accident and require continuing medical care
- your illness or injuries, or your state of health, must be confirmed by a doctor, and
- your disability must meet these criteria (as applicable):

If you worked 20 or more paid hours a week in the 4 weeks before you became disabled

Your disability must prevent you:

- during the first 24 months: from performing all the main duties of the usual occupation you held on the date your disability started
- after the first 24 months: from performing any paid work

If you didn't work 20 or more paid hours a week in the 4 weeks before you became disabled

Your disability must prevent you from performing all the normal activities of a person who is the same age as you.

See the Loan Insurance Booklet for more details.

When do disability benefit payments start?

You must be disabled for a certain number of consecutive days before you're entitled to benefit payments. It's what we call the waiting period, and it can be 0 days (no waiting period), 30 days or 90 days, depending on your situation.

Once we've finished analyzing your claim, we'll start paying benefits based on one of the waiting periods indicated below.

No waiting period if your disability is due to cancer

- Your benefits are payable as of the day you become disabled

Some conditions apply. See the Loan Insurance Booklet for more details.

30-day waiting period if your disability results directly from an accident or if you have to be hospitalized for at least 48 consecutive hours because of the disability

- To be entitled to benefit payments, you have to be disabled for more than 30 consecutive days
- Your benefits are payable as of the 31st day of disability
- You aren't entitled to any amount for the first 30 days of disability

90-day waiting period for all other disabilities

- To be entitled to benefit payments, you have to be disabled for more than 90 consecutive days
- Your benefits are payable as of the 91st day of disability
- The first benefit payment we make will also include a refund for any regular payments you made between the 31st and the 90th days, based on the disability insurance percentage you've selected
- You aren't entitled to any amount for the first 30 days of disability

To find out more about the waiting periods, see the Loan Insurance Booklet.

Will I be entitled to benefits if my disability is caused by any health conditions I already have?

Important: The disability coverage you can get with Loan Insurance includes a restriction in case of previous illness or injury that can limit your coverage.

So, if you've been seen or treated by a doctor for a health condition in the 6 months before the coverage start-date, your coverage may be reduced if you become disabled because of this condition.

Your coverage may also be reduced if you become disabled because of a health condition for which you were seen or treated by a doctor in the 6 months before an increase in:

- your loan amount
- your disability insurance percentage, or
- your regular payment amount

We strongly recommend you refer to pages 11 and 12 of the Loan Insurance Booklet for more details about the restriction in case of previous illness or injury.

Are there any other situations where my coverage can be reduced?

Yes, this maximum and these exclusions apply to Loan Insurance:

Maximum payable in case of suicide for loans and lines of credit insured for less than 6 months

$75,000 per insured person for all loans and lines of credit insured with these Desjardins Insurance products: Loan Insurance, Loan Insurance – Versatile Line of Credit and Line of Credit Insurance.

Exclusions related to circumstances surrounding the disability

We won't pay benefits for any disability that occurs:

- as a result of deliberate actions, while you're sane or insane
- during a war, insurrection or riot
- during your involvement in a criminal act
- as a result of corrective measures or cosmetic treatments

What happens if I don't answer a question properly when applying for coverage?

Providing incorrect or incomplete information, or making a false statement, could result in your coverage being cancelled or a claim being denied.

When does my coverage start?

Your coverage starts on the later of these dates:

- The date you sign the Application for Insurance
- The date your loan is disbursed

However, if you're taking out the loan to buy property, your coverage may begin on the date you sign a credit contract secured by a mortgage. See the Loan Insurance policy at your caisse for all conditions that apply.

If you have to submit an Evidence of Insurability Report

You're covered for death or disability in case of accident only until we decide whether to approve or deny your application, for a maximum of 3 months.

Within 30 days of receiving the forms and information we need to process your application (this includes any information provided by your doctor, if applicable), we'll write to you to let you know whether or not we've approved your application.

In all cases, if your loan isn't disbursed within 12 months of when you sign the Application for Insurance, you'll need to fill out another Application for Insurance and submit an Evidence of Insurability Report, if applicable.

What happens if multiple insured persons are disabled at the same time?

If multiple insured persons are disabled at the same time, the total amount we pay for all these insured persons won't be more than the loan's regular payment.

See the Loan Insurance Booklet for more details.

11

At what age will my coverage end?

For life insurance

You're covered until the first loan renewal that occurs on or after your 70th birthday, but no later than when you turn 80.

For disability insurance

You're covered until the first loan renewal that occurs on or after your 65th birthday, but no later than when you turn 70.

12

Can I end my coverage?

Yes, you can end your coverage at any time by notifying your caisse. Simply fill out the form in the Loan Insurance Booklet or the Notice of Cancellation of an Insurance Contract you should have been given with this summary.

If you end your coverage within 30 days of the coverage start-date, we'll refund any premiums you've paid, as long as you haven't made any claims.

How much does Loan Insurance cost?

To be insured, you have to pay an additional interest rate

The amount you have to pay to get Loan Insurance is called the premium and it's an additional interest rate that's applied to your loan. This amount includes any applicable taxes. You only start paying for Loan Insurance when your loan is disbursed.

Your regular payments are higher because of the additional interest rate for the insurance

Each regular payment consists of:

- A portion that pays down the amount borrowed (the principal)
- A portion that covers the interest on your loan, and
- A portion that covers the additional interest for the insurance (your premium)

The difference between the regular payments with and without insurance doesn't equal the cost of insurance

Since the additional interest rate for the insurance is applied to the loan balance every time you make a regular payment, the cost of insurance goes down as your balance goes down during the term. This means that you're always paying a fair price for your coverage based on the balance that you have left to pay on your loan.

The life of your loan is the same... it's how the balance goes down that's different

At the beginning of the life of the loan, the difference between the regular payments with and without insurance is less than the cost of insurance, but later on it will be greater. This means that you'll be repaying less principal at the start and more towards the end. Even though the cost of insurance has an impact on how your loan balance goes down, the life of the loan stays the same.

Let's take a look at how it works:

Because the loan balance doesn't go down the same way when you have Loan Insurance, there's more interest to pay on the portion of the balance that's in blue in the graph above. This extra interest is included in the cost of insurance.

See the Loan Insurance Booklet to find out more about the cost of insurance.

When do you reset the additional interest rate for my insurance?

Here are the main situations in which we reset the additional interest rate for the insurance:

- At each loan renewal, based on things like how old you are at the time
- When your caisse changes the interest rate for your 5-in-1 mortgage as part of the annual reset
- When changes are made to the terms and conditions of your loan or to your coverage

See the Loan Insurance Booklet for more information on when the additional interest rate for the insurance is reset.

15

How do I submit claims?

See the Loan Insurance Booklet for more information on:

- how to make a claim
- how long you have to submit a claim
- when you can expect benefit payments to start
- what you can do if you disagree with our decision

16

What can I do if I'm not satisfied?

LET'S TALK INSURANCE!

Name of distributor: _____

Name of insurer: _____

Name of insurance product: _____

IT'S YOUR CHOICE

You are never required to purchase insurance:

- that is offered by your distributor;
- from a person who is assigned to you; or
- to obtain a better interest rate or any other benefit.

Even if you are required to be insured, you do not have to purchase the insurance that is being offered. You can choose your insurance product and your insurer.

HOW TO CHOOSE

To choose the insurance product that's right for you, we recommend that you read the summary that describes the insurance product and that must be provided to you.

DISTRIBUTOR REMUNERATION

A portion of the amount you pay for the insurance will be paid to the distributor as remuneration. The distributor must tell you when the remuneration exceeds 30% of that amount.

RIGHT TO CANCEL

The Act allows you to rescind an insurance contract, at no cost, within 10 days after the purchase of your insurance. However, the insurer may grant you a longer period of time. After that time, fees may apply if you cancel the insurance. Ask your distributor about the period of time granted to cancel it at no cost.

If the cost of the insurance is added to the financing amount and you cancel the insurance, your monthly financing payments might not change. Instead, the refund could be used to shorten the financing period. Ask your distributor for details.

1 About the life insurance

How much is the benefit that's paid?

Life insurance covers the balance of your loan, based on the life insurance percentage you've selected.

Here's how we calculate the amount we pay if you die while you're insured under this coverage:

$$\begin{array}{ccc} \text{your loan balance} & \times & \text{your life insurance} \\ \text{on the date of death} & \text{(multiplied} & \text{percentage} \\ & \text{by)} & \end{array}$$

- Your loan balance on the date of death is the loan balance on the date of the last payment you made before your death, plus any interest that's accrued since you made that payment
- Your life insurance percentage is the one you selected on the Application for Insurance, if your application has been approved
- The benefit that's paid under your Loan Insurance will never be more than your loan balance on the date of death, even if multiple insured persons die at the same time

Who will the benefit be paid to?

Since this coverage is for your loan, we pay the benefit to your caisse, not you, so your caisse can pay off or pay down the balance of your loan.

Are there any situations where my coverage can be reduced?

Yes. In case of suicide, we won't pay more than $75,000 per insured person for all loans and lines of credit insured for less than 6 months with these Desjardins Insurance products: Loan Insurance, Loan Insurance – Versatile Line of Credit and Line of Credit Insurance.

2 About the disability insurance

Do I have to meet any criteria to be considered disabled?

To be entitled to benefit payments, you must be suffering from a total disability. This means that:

- you must be disabled because of an illness or an accident and require continuing medical care
- your illness or injuries, or your state of health, must be confirmed by a doctor, and
- your disability must meet these criteria (as applicable):

If you worked 20 or more paid hours a week in the 4 weeks before you became disabled

Your disability must prevent you:

- during the first 24 months: from performing all the main duties of the usual occupation you held on the date your disability started
- after the first 24 months: from performing any paid work

If you didn't work 20 or more paid hours a week in the 4 weeks before you became disabled

Your disability must prevent you from performing all the normal activities of a person who is the same age as you.

When you make a claim, we'll consider your disability to have started on the date it meets all the criteria listed above.

Accident	A sudden and unforeseen event that: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• is the result of an external cause• is independent of any illness or other causes, and• leads to bodily injury or death The injury or death must be confirmed by a doctor and must be directly and solely the result of the accident.
Continuing medical care	The type of care you need to receive. It must be care that's: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• generally accepted as effective, appropriate and essential in the diagnosis or treatment of an illness or an injury• reasonable and customary• administered or prescribed by a doctor or, when Desjardins Insurance feels it's necessary, by a healthcare professional in the appropriate field• not limited to examinations and tests• given at a frequency that's appropriate for the illness or injury you're suffering from
Doctor	Any person, other than the insured person, who is licensed to practise medicine in Canada and who doesn't live with the insured person.

When do disability benefit payments start?

You must be disabled for a certain number of consecutive days before you're entitled to benefit payments. It's what we call the waiting period, and it can be 0 days (no waiting period), 30 days or 90 days, depending on your situation.

Once we've finished analyzing your claim, we'll start paying benefits based on one of the waiting periods indicated on pages 8 and 9.

No waiting period if your disability is due to cancer

- Your benefits are payable as of the day you become disabled

Let's take a look at how it works:

⚠ Criteria you have to meet for the waiting period for cancer to be 0 days

Your cancer diagnosis:

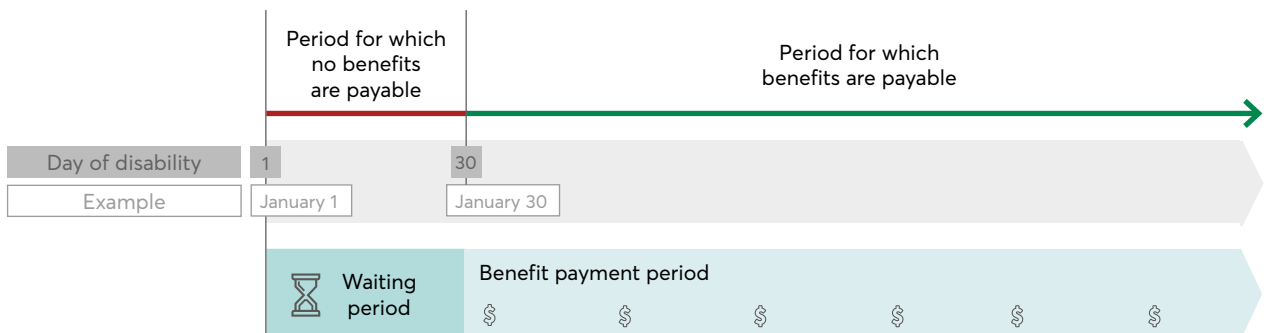

- must meet this definition: the definite diagnosis of a tumour characterized by uncontrolled growth and the spread of malignant cells and the invasion of tissue
- must be made by a specialist (a doctor who's licensed to practise medicine in Canada and has specialized medical training related to the type of cancer for which you're making a claim)—you can't be the specialist and the specialist can't live with you
- can't be for any of these cancers:
 - carcinoma in situ
 - stage 1A malignant melanoma (melanoma less than or equal to 1.0 mm in thickness, not ulcerated and without Clark level IV or level V invasion)
 - any non-melanoma skin cancer that hasn't metastasized, or
 - stage A (T1a or T1b) prostate cancer

If you become disabled because of any of these cancers, you'll need to satisfy a 30- or 90-day waiting period (see below).

30-day waiting period if your disability results directly from an accident or if you have to be hospitalized for at least 48 consecutive hours because of the disability

- To be entitled to benefit payments, you have to be disabled for more than 30 consecutive days
- Your benefits are payable as of the 31st day of disability
- You aren't entitled to any amount for the first 30 days of disability

Let's take a look at how it works:

90-day waiting period for all other disabilities

- To be entitled to benefit payments, you have to be disabled for more than 90 consecutive days
- Your benefits are payable as of the 91st day of disability
- The first benefit payment we make will also include a refund for any regular payments you made between the 31st and the 90th days, based on the disability insurance percentage you've selected
- You aren't entitled to any amount for the first 30 days of disability

Let's take a look at how it works:

How much is the benefit that's paid?

Disability insurance covers your regular payments, based on the disability insurance percentage you've selected.

If you become disabled while you're insured under this coverage, we'll pay an amount for each day of disability that you're entitled to benefits.

Here's how we calculate this amount:

- The regular payment we use for the calculation is the one that's indicated in the loan agreement between you and the caisse
- Your disability insurance percentage is the one you selected on your Application for Insurance, if your application has been approved

Here's an example of how we calculate the benefit payable for 35 days of disability:

Example

When Samiha and Brandon bought their home, they both took out disability coverage to protect their loan.

Samiha became disabled. Here's how we calculated the benefit payable for the first 35 days of disability after her 30-day waiting period:

- Regular payment made to the caisse every 7 days (weekly): $400
- Regular payment converted into a monthly amount: $1,733.33
($400 X 52 weeks ÷ 12 months)
- Samiha's disability insurance percentage: 75%

Step 1

regular payment converted into a monthly amount $1,733.33	X	disability insurance percentage 75%	X	12 months	÷	365 days	=	benefit per day of disability $42.74
---	---	--	---	-----------	---	----------	---	--

Step 2

benefit per day of disability $42.74	X	35 days of disability	=	benefit payment for 35 days of disability $1,495.90
--	---	-----------------------	---	---

See pages 7 to 9 to find out when benefit payments would start.

Who will the benefits be paid to?

Since this coverage is for your loan, we pay the benefits to your caisse, not you, so your caisse can pay down your loan balance or refund any regular payments that you've made since you became disabled.

We recommend you keep making the regular payments for your loan the whole time you're disabled. If you don't, late penalties may apply.

How often are benefits paid?

We don't pay benefits on a regular schedule. Even though your benefits are calculated per day of disability, we don't pay them to the caisse every day. Also, not all benefit payments cover the same number of days of disability.

After the initial payment, how often we make benefit payments to your caisse depends on the information we receive from your doctor about how long your disability is expected to last. How often benefit payments are made and how many days they cover can also vary when we ask you to confirm that you're still disabled.

Are there any situations where my coverage can be reduced?

Yes, your coverage may be reduced because of the restriction and exclusions below:

1. Restriction in case of previous illness or injury

You may not be entitled to all or some of your benefits if you become disabled within 2 years of:

- the start of your coverage
 - an increase in:
 - your loan amount
 - your disability insurance percentage, or
 - your regular payment amount*
- * unless the only reason your regular payment has gone up is because your caisse has increased the interest rate on your loan

To find out if this restriction applies to you, answer the questions below—follow the instructions that go with your answer and refer to the timelines as needed.

Question 1

Did you become disabled within 2 years of when your coverage started or within 2 years of when you increased your loan amount, your disability insurance percentage or your regular payment amount?

Answer

No: This restriction doesn't apply to you.
You don't have to answer any more questions.

Yes: This restriction may apply to you.
Go to question 2.

Question 2

In the 6 months right before the coverage start-date or the increase, were you seen or treated for the symptoms, the illness or the injury that caused your disability?

Answer

No: This restriction doesn't apply to you.
You don't have to answer question 3.

Yes: This restriction may apply to you.
Go to question 3.

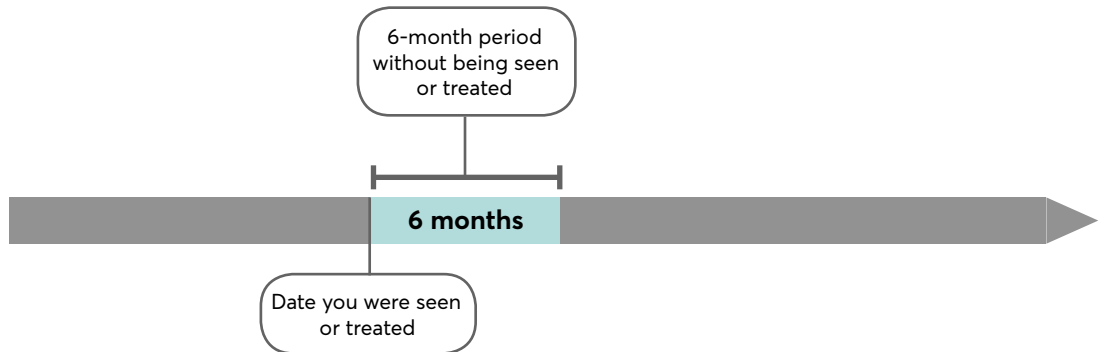

Question 3

After you were seen or treated, was there a period of 6 consecutive months during which you weren't seen or treated for the symptoms, the illness or the injury that caused your disability?

Answer

Yes: This restriction doesn't apply to you.

No: This restriction applies to you.
You aren't entitled to benefit payments or the benefit may be reduced.

Seen or treated

We consider you to have been seen or treated for an illness, the symptoms associated with an illness or an injury if you've:

- consulted or received care from a doctor or another healthcare professional who is a member of a professional body
- undergone examinations or tests
- taken medication, or
- been hospitalized

2. Exclusions related to circumstances surrounding the disability

We won't pay benefits for any disability that occurs:

- as a result of deliberate actions, while you're sane or insane
- during a war, insurrection or riot
- during your involvement in a criminal act
- as a result of corrective measures or cosmetic treatments

What happens if multiple insured persons are disabled at the same time?

If necessary, we adjust the disability insurance percentages used to calculate the benefit payments so they don't total more than 100% of the loan's regular payment.

Example When Sam and Alex bought their home, they both took out disability coverage to protect their loan. Here are the insurance percentages they've selected:

	Disability insurance percentage
Sam	50%
Alex	75%

Sam becomes disabled

We pay 50% of the regular payment for Sam

Alex then becomes disabled

Since we can't pay more than 100% of Sam's and Alex's regular payment, we continue to pay 50% of the regular payment for Sam and we start paying 50% for Alex.

Sam is no longer disabled

We pay 75% of the regular payment for Alex

When will benefit payments end?

We stop paying disability benefits on the earliest of the following:

- when you no longer meet the criteria for being considered disabled
- when you start doing paid work
- when you start any training
- when you go back to school
- when you refuse to participate in good faith in any rehabilitation program that Desjardins Insurance considers to be appropriate
- when you turn 70
- 12 months after your loan was supposed to be repaid in full, based on its repayment terms and conditions
- when the borrower asks the caisse in writing to end your coverage
- when your loan has been repaid in full, even if it's been replaced with another loan at a caisse
- when a transfer of ownership (also known as conveyance) for a mortgaged property is signed
- when you've been disabled for 5 years, if your loan doesn't have a maturity date

Making a claim

What do I have to do and by when?

For life claims

You have to submit the required forms and proof of death.

We need you to get these documents to us as soon as reasonably possible.

For disability claims

You have to submit the required forms and any proof we ask for.

We need to receive these documents no later than 1 year after the date your disability starts.

Otherwise, we'll only pay benefits for the 12-month period right before the date we receive all the forms and documents needed for your claim. For example, if we receive everything we need to process your claim 18 months after you become disabled, we won't pay any benefits for the first 6 months.

Sometimes we need more information to analyze your claim, so we may ask you to go see a doctor that we choose.

You're responsible for paying any fees the doctor charges to fill out forms.

How can I get the forms I need?

You have 3 options for getting the forms and documents you need and information on how to submit a claim:

- Go to www.claim.desjardinslifeinsurance.com
- Call us at 1-866-758-7601
- Speak with an advisor at your caisse

Can I send documents electronically?

Yes, you can use this secure link to send us most of your documents:

www.desjardinslifeinsurance.com/send

If we ask you for original documents, you can't use the link—you have to mail them to us.

What happens once you have everything you need to analyze my claim?

Once we have all the documents and information we need, we'll start analyzing your claim.

Within 30 days of receiving your documents, we'll send you a letter to inform you of our decision and make a benefit payment if we've approved your claim.

We recommend you keep making your regular payments the whole time you're disabled. If you don't, late penalties may apply.

If I don't agree with your decision, can I ask you to review my claim again?

Yes, if you have new information that might cause us to reconsider our decision, you can ask us to review your claim.

What can I do if I'm not satisfied?

If you still aren't satisfied after we've reviewed your claim, you can file a complaint with our Dispute Resolution Officer. Their role is to evaluate whether we've followed proper practices and procedures when clients feel they haven't received the service they're entitled to.

Here's how to contact our Dispute Resolution Officer:

4 The cost of insurance

How is the cost of my insurance calculated?

To be insured, you have to pay an additional interest rate

The amount you have to pay to get Loan Insurance is called the premium and it's an additional interest rate that's applied to your loan. You only start paying for Loan Insurance when your loan is disbursed.

Let's take a look at how it works:

Example Jenna and Kieran, both 42, have just taken out a mortgage through their caisse to buy a new home. They'll be making a regular payment once a month and plan to pay off their mortgage in 20 years. They've opted for a 5-year term (60 months) for their initial term. They've both selected 100% for their life insurance percentage.

Loan features for the initial 5-year term:

- Loan amount: $150,000
- Number of regular payments during the term: 60

A mortgage term is the length of time a loan agreement and its terms and conditions will be in effect. In Canada, the most popular mortgage term is 5 years.

In Jenna's and Kieran's case, the interest rate is these 2 rates added together:

Basic interest rate set by the caisse 3%	+	Additional interest rate for the insurance 0.438%
--	---	---

Your regular payments are higher because of the additional interest rate for the insurance

Each regular payment consists of:

- a portion that pays down the amount borrowed (the principal)
- a portion that covers the interest on your loan, and
- a portion that covers the additional interest for the insurance (your premium)

Here's what Jenna's and Kieran's regular payment looks like with and without insurance:

	Without insurance	With insurance	Difference
Regular payment for the initial 5-year term	$831	$865	$34

The difference between the regular payments with and without insurance doesn't equal the cost of insurance

Since the additional interest rate for the insurance is applied to the loan balance every time you make a regular payment, the cost of insurance goes down as your balance goes down during the term. This means that you're always paying a fair price for your coverage based on the balance that you have left to pay on your loan.

In our example, Jenna and Kieran want to pay off their loan in 20 years. In the beginning, their cost of insurance will be higher than the difference between their regular payments with and without insurance. Since there won't be enough to pay for the insurance, a portion of their regular payment (that would have otherwise been used to pay down the amount borrowed) will be used to make up the difference.

Later, it's the opposite: their cost of insurance will be less than the difference between their regular payments with and without insurance. This means there'll be more money to pay down the amount borrowed.

Let's compare the first regular payment of the initial term of Jenna's and Kieran's loan and the first regular payment of the final term of their loan:

First payment of initial 5-year term

First payment of final 5-year term

Your cost of insurance could go up if you're in a new age group when you renew your loan.

The life of your loan is the same... it's how the balance goes down that's different

Since the difference between the regular payments with and without insurance isn't enough to cover the full cost of insurance at the beginning of the life of the loan, you won't be repaying as much principal at the start. Even though the cost of insurance has an impact on how your loan balance goes down, the life of the loan stays the same.

Let's take a look at how it works:

Because the loan balance doesn't go down the same way when you have Loan Insurance, there's more interest to pay on the portion of the balance that's in blue in the graph on page 17. This extra interest is included in the cost of insurance.

How is the additional interest rate for the insurance calculated?

The additional interest rate is calculated using charts that show the monthly rates per $1,000 of loan balance. It varies based on these elements, as applicable:

For life insurance

- The monthly rates per $1,000 of insurance in effect on the calculation date
- The coverages each insured person has selected (life insurance only or life and disability insurance)
- The insurance percentages selected
- Each insured person's age
- Each insured person's sex and whether they smoke
- The initial amount of your loan multiplied by your insurance percentage

For disability insurance

- The monthly rates per $1,000 of insurance in effect on the calculation date
- The insurance percentages selected
- Each insured person's age
- The remaining life of the loan (for example, 20 years) and the amount of your regular payments
- The interest rate on the loan and whether interest capitalization is monthly or semi-annual
- The terms and conditions for repaying the loan (for example, principal plus interest, fixed principal plus interest, interest only) and how often regular payments are made

Can the additional interest rate for my insurance change?

Yes, we reset this rate:

- at each loan renewal, based on how old you are at the time for life and disability insurance and based on the new terms and conditions of your loan (interest rate, remaining life of the loan, repayment terms and conditions, etc.) for disability insurance (see previous question)
- when a 5-in-1 mortgage is reset each year (we change the additional interest rate if the interest rate for the mortgage has changed)
- when changes are made to the terms and conditions of your loan or to your coverage—this includes changes to the amount of your regular payment, how often you make your regular payments, the end of the loan term, the coverages selected or the insured persons
- at least once every 10 years, based on how old you are at the time

Is the cost of insurance guaranteed?

No, we can change the cost of insurance at any time.

If we do decide to change it, you won't have to start paying the new cost until the first situation that leads to your additional interest rate being reset happens (see previous question).

What happens if I increase the amount of my regular payments?

Increasing the amount of your regular payments will change the life of your loan.

If you've taken out disability insurance, we'll need to reset your additional interest rate for the insurance to take into account the new remaining life of the loan and your new regular payment amount.

5 Getting coverage

Am I eligible for coverage?

For personal loans, here's who can get Loan Insurance:

- A borrower, or
- A borrower's guarantor

For business loans, here's who can get Loan Insurance:

- A director, officer or owner of the business, or
- A guarantor for the business

To get Loan Insurance, you must be a resident of Canada. In other words, you must be legally authorized to reside in Canada and live here at least 6 months a year.

Business	Any association, corporation, cooperative, company or partnership
Guarantor	Any person who has agreed in writing to pay back all or some of your loan if you aren't able to

Is there an age limit for taking out coverage?

For life insurance

You need to be under 70.

For disability insurance

You need to be under 65.

How do I apply?

You'll need to go to your caisse and fill out an Application for Insurance. On the application, you'll have to select the coverages and the insurance percentages you want. For the application to be valid, it must be signed in Canada.

Can I take out just life insurance or just disability insurance?

You have 2 options. You can get:

- Life insurance only, or
- Life insurance and disability insurance

How much coverage can I get?

Each person getting coverage selects their own insurance percentages on the Application for Insurance.

For life insurance

You have to select a life insurance percentage between 10% and 100%.

For disability insurance

You have to select a disability insurance percentage between 10% and 100%. Keep in mind that your disability insurance percentage can't be higher than your life insurance percentage.

Are there coverage limits?

Yes, these maximums apply:

For life insurance

The maximum payable is $10,000,000 per insured person for all loans and lines of credit insured with these Desjardins Insurance products: Loan Insurance, Loan Insurance – Versatile Line of Credit and Line of Credit Insurance.

For disability insurance

The maximum payable is $10,000 a month per insured person for all loans and lines of credit insured with these Desjardins Insurance products: Loan Insurance, Loan Insurance – Versatile Line of Credit and Line of Credit Insurance.

What types of loans can I insure?

For life insurance

You can get life insurance for all types of loans (other than lines of credit)

For disability insurance

You can get disability insurance for all types of loans:

- for which you've taken out life insurance, and
- that are repaid with regular payments (you're required to make at least 1 regular payment a year)

Is there a health questionnaire?

There are some questions you'll need to answer on the Application for Insurance.

Your answers will help us determine:

- if we can approve your application right away, or
- if you need to fill out a questionnaire about your health and lifestyle habits—it's called an Evidence of Insurability Report and your caisse will provide you with a copy, if needed

If an Evidence of Insurability Report is required, you'll need to fill it out and return it to your caisse within 14 days of when you sign the Application for Insurance. If your health changes before we inform you of our decision, you need to call us at 1-888-905-7065.

What happens if I don't answer a question properly when applying for coverage?

Providing incorrect or incomplete information, or making a false statement, could result in your coverage being cancelled or a claim being denied.

6 Start of coverage

When does my coverage start?

Your coverage starts on the later of these dates:

- The date you sign the Application for Insurance
- The date your loan is disbursed

However, if you're taking out the loan to buy property, your coverage may begin on the date you sign a credit contract secured by a mortgage. See the Loan Insurance policy at your caisse for all conditions that apply.

If you have to submit an Evidence of Insurability Report

You're covered for death or disability in case of accident only until we decide whether to approve or deny your application, for a maximum of 3 months.

Within 30 days of receiving the forms and information we need to process your application (this includes any information provided by your doctor, if applicable), we'll write to you to let you know whether or not we've approved your application.

In all cases, if your loan isn't disbursed within 12 months of when you sign the Application for Insurance, you'll need to fill out another Application for Insurance and submit an Evidence of Insurability Report, if applicable.

Accident

A sudden and unforeseen event that:

- is the result of an external cause
- is independent of any illness or other causes, and
- leads to bodily injury or death

The injury or death must be confirmed by a doctor and must be directly and solely the result of the accident.

What document confirms I'm covered?

If you didn't have to complete an Evidence of Insurability Report, your confirmation of coverage is the Application for Insurance. Your insurance certificate is the Application for Insurance and this Loan Insurance Booklet.

If you had to complete an Evidence of Insurability Report, your confirmation of coverage is the letter Desjardins Insurance sends you to confirm your coverages. Your insurance certificate is the letter and this Loan Insurance Booklet.

What documents make up my contract?

These are the documents that make up your insurance contract:

- The Application for Insurance that you filled out and signed at the caisse
- The Evidence of Insurability Report, if you had to complete one
- Any letter confirming your coverages or insurance percentages
- This Loan Insurance Booklet
- The Loan Insurance Summary
- The Loan Insurance policy between Desjardins Insurance and your caisse, plus any riders that have been added to the policy

If you'd like to see the Loan Insurance policy, feel free to go to your caisse during business hours to take a look at it.

7 Renewal, changes and special loans

What happens to my insurance when I renew my loan?

At each loan renewal, your coverage remains in force and is adjusted to the loan balance. At the loan renewal, we reset the additional interest rate for the insurance, based on how old you are at the time of renewal (see Can the additional interest rate for my insurance change? on page 18).

Do I need to answer health questions when I renew my loan with insurance?

No, changes in your health don't have an impact when you renew the insurance at the time of the loan renewal.

How do I change my coverage?

If you want to change your coverage, you'll need to go to your caisse and fill out another Application for Insurance.

If my new Application for Insurance is denied, what happens to any Loan Insurance I already had?

If you already had coverage for a loan or a Versatile Line of Credit and its linked loans and you submitted a new Application for Insurance that was denied, we may still approve an insurance percentage (life or disability) for your loan based on the balance of the loan, the Versatile Line of Credit or the linked loan that was insured and the insurance percentages you had.

Your caisse will have to fill out an application for prior coverage recognition and send it to us.

We'll send you a letter confirming your new insurance percentage(s). If you make a claim, we'll use these percentages to determine the amount payable. The cost of your insurance will be adjusted accordingly.

Some conditions apply. To find out more, contact your caisse.

Are there any special conditions for mortgages with a variable interest rate?

Yes, to calculate the disability benefits you're entitled to for this type of loan, we use the amount of the regular payments indicated in your loan agreement. This means that during the term:

- we don't reset the additional interest rate for the insurance when the interest rate on your loan changes unless the rate has changed because of a new loan agreement with the caisse
- if you increase the amount of your regular payments, you may not be covered for the portion that represents the increase because of the restriction in case of previous illness or injury that may apply to your disability coverage
- any lump-sum payment your caisse may require you to make won't be covered under the disability insurance

Are there any special conditions for other types of loans?

Yes, there are special conditions that apply to other types of loans. To find out more, go to your caisse and ask to see the Loan Insurance policy.

8 End of coverage

Can I end my coverage?

Yes. If you end your coverage within 30 days of when it started:

- We'll consider you to have never been insured, and
- We'll refund any premiums you've paid, as long as you haven't made any claims

If you end your coverage more than 30 days after it started, your coverage will end on the date you ask for this in writing, but you won't get any money back.

How can I end my coverage?

You have 3 options:

- Sign a form at your caisse
- Fill out the End Your Coverage form on page 29 of this booklet and send it to your caisse by registered mail, or
- Fill out the Notice of Cancellation of an Insurance Contract you were given when you purchased your coverage and send it to your caisse by registered mail

When does my coverage end?

	Life insurance	Disability insurance
when you turn 80	✓
when you turn 70		✓
at the first loan renewal that occurs on or after your 70th birthday	✓

Can I convert my Loan Insurance into individual life insurance?

Yes, you can get individual life insurance without having to complete a questionnaire about your health and lifestyle habits if you meet all these criteria:

- You've had Loan Insurance for a mortgage for at least a year
- You've repaid the full loan amount to your caisse
- When you repaid the full loan amount, the insured balance of the loan (the balance multiplied by your life insurance percentage) was $25,000 or more
- The mortgage security, if there still is one, is no longer held by a Desjardins entity and has not been replaced with a new mortgage security in favour of a Desjardins entity
- You're under 65 when you apply for individual insurance
- You apply within 31 days of when you've repaid your loan in full

Features:

- The type of individual life insurance contract that's offered by Desjardins Insurance at the time for converting Loan Insurance into individual coverage
- An individual life insurance amount that corresponds to the insured balance of your loan (the balance multiplied by your life insurance percentage) on the date it's been repaid in full, to a maximum of $250,000—you must therefore take out a minimum of $25,000 in individual life insurance, but no more than $250,000.

To convert your Loan Insurance into individual coverage, call 1-888-905-7065. An agent will contact you to analyze your insurance needs and help you convert your coverage.
