

Making a difference this holiday season

December 2017 Sudbury — Desjardins Voyageurs Credit Union delivered three Christmas baskets valued at $500 each to three less fortunate families in the City of Greater Sudbury.

Thanks to donations made by staff members at Desjardins Voyageurs Credit Union, food and gifts were distributed to ensure these families could enjoy the holiday season more comfortably. «Desjardins Voyageurs Credit Union is proud to help these local families and spread some holiday cheer during this festive season», said Mr. Jean-Marc Spencer, Executive Director of Desjardins Voyageurs Credit Union. «Voyageurs Credit Union cares greatly for the well-being of our community and the families in need within it».

Mr. Spencer thanks all of the employees at Desjardins Voyageurs Credit Union for their generosity toward these families. «I'm happy to see that our employees have other people's joy at heart and that, thanks to their donations, three families in need will celebrate Christmas with plenty of food and gifts», he added.

Donations for organizations...

In addition to contributions for these Christmas baskets, the staff at Desjardins Voyageurs Credit Union also took part in Dress Down Days throughout the year and raised over $2,000 to benefit local organizations.

Photo (from the left) : Stéphan Plante, Director of Retail Banking at Voyageurs Credit Union and Jean-Marc Spencer, Executive Director at Voyageurs Credit Union are getting ready to spread some holiday cheer!

For more information

Sophie Gingras
Communications and Public Affairs
705.674.4234 ext. 7303088
sophie.a.gingras@desjardins.com