

Desjardins Voyageurs Credit Union and the community collected $1,500

Sudbury, June 2017– $1,500 was given to the Sudbury St-Jean-Baptiste Organizing Committee. The amount was collected during the traditional pancake breakfast organized by Desjardins Voyageurs Credit Union on June 18th.

Executive Director, Jean-Marc Spencer, would like to thank the community who contributed to the success of this event. «Even though the pancake breakfast was free of charge, it was heartening to see that people were ready to make a donation to a local organization, » he explained. Over 300 people came out to the pancake breakfast held on Sunday, June 18th.

In addition, for the tenth consecutive year, Desjardins Voyageurs Credit Union, in conjunction with its community partners, supplied the financial and human resources needed to hold the breakfast. «I'd like to thank all of the employees who helped with this event. This breakfast is a reflection, of our cooperative difference» Mr. Spencer added. «I would also like to thank Desjardins partners and various community businesses that also supported our breakfast ».

Over the past ten years, Desjardins Voyageurs Credit Union has given over $12,000 to the Sudbury St. Jean-Baptiste Organizing Committee. «The money awarded by the Credit Union and the community has helped to provide many exciting activities to celebrate this holiday over the years», said Lyse Lamothe, a member of the St-Jean-Baptiste Organizing Committee.
