benefit from 2022's good financial results

2022 fiscal year highlights

Business volume of $1.9 billion

Operating surplus earnings of $12.9 million

Total dividends of $1.6 million:

$1.5 million to members

$75 000 to the Community Development Fund

(LaSalle, April 12, 2023) – Caisse Desjardins de LaSalle held its annual general meeting online on April 12, 2023. It was an opportunity for members to go over the caisse's financial results for the previous year. Members then had 4 days to vote on dividends and elect members to the board of directors.

The distribution plan for surplus earnings that members voted to accept at the annual general meeting amounted to total dividends of $1.6 million. In all, $1.5 million will be paid out as member dividends and $200 850 will go to the Community Development Fund (CDF). "This money lets us support meaningful projects in the community and demonstrate our cooperative difference. I'd like to thank our members. By doing business with us, you're helping us enrich the lives of people and our community," said caisse chair Lucie Spallone.

In 2022, the caisse posted operating surplus earnings of $12.9 million, up 1.7% from 2021. Its business volume grew by 0.3% to $1.9 billion during the same period.

In addition to the member dividends and contribution to the CDF stated above, the caisse gave back $100 285 in donations and sponsorships.

Finally, there were 4 open seats on the caisse board of directors. Here are the results of the election, which was held in the days following the annual general meeting:

- Ben Lumière Moussienza
- Renée Lamy-Brault
- Julie Poirier
- Claudette Zizian
