Health questions

If you choose Emergency Health Care or Trip Cancellation, you may have to answer a medical questionnaire.

Special rules apply to people aged 61 to 81 who are insured under Multi-Trip Annual Insurance. See Contract renewal and Quattrra Advantage for insureds aged 61 to 80 on page 30.

You need to provide accurate information

The information you provide when you request insurance or a coverage extension is very important—we use it to decide whether or not we're going to insure you.

If you provide incorrect or incomplete information, or make a false statement, we may cancel your coverage or deny your claim.

That said, after the first 2 years of coverage, we can no longer cancel your coverage or deny your claim based on the information and statements you provided, except in case of fraud.

1. Penalty if you don't contact the Assistance Service BEFORE going to a hospital or clinic

If you don't contact the Assistance Service (see page 5 for more details) BEFORE going to a hospital or clinic, you'll be required to pay 30% of the eligible expenses, up to $3,000.

2. Exclusion for injuries or medical conditions that were not stable before leaving on your trip

Since Multi-Trip Annual Insurance only covers sudden and unforeseen events, you may not be covered for an injury or medical condition you were suffering from prior to your departure date.

If you have an injury or medical condition that is not stable in the 182 days (90 days if you're under age 55) prior to your departure date, you aren't covered if you incur expenses for this injury or medical condition, or any related injury or medical condition. This exclusion applies even if you had declared the injury or medical condition in the medical questionnaire or if a physician told you that you could travel.

To determine if an injury or medical condition is not stable, answer the following question for EACH injury or medical condition and for EACH trip. Refer to the timeline below as needed. In case of doubt, contact your physician or us for assistance.

During the 182 days (90 days if you're under age 55) right before your departure date, were you suffering from an injury or medical condition that was not stable? An injury or medical condition is not stable if:

- You had new symptoms or the existing symptoms were more frequent or more intense
- You consulted a physician or are waiting to consult one (except for a routine check-up)
- A physician recommended that you undergo a test or be seen by another physician, you underwent a test or you're waiting for the results
- You had surgery, were hospitalized for at least 18 consecutive hours or a physician recommended that you have surgery
- You started a new treatment, including a new drug, or a new treatment was prescribed
- You had a change in treatment or medication (quantity, frequency or the medication itself) or this change was prescribed

We don't consider a routine adjustment to insulin or Coumadin, or the replacement of a brand-name drug for an identical generic drug if the dose is the same, to be a change of medication.

Here's a timeline to help you answer:

Answer:

No: This exclusion doesn't apply to you.

Yes: This exclusion applies to you. You aren't covered for this injury or medical condition, or any related injury or medical condition.

Exceptions for certain minor medical conditions

If you answered Yes to the above question and your medical condition is a cold, flu, ear infection, sinus infection, sore throat or tonsillitis, you're covered for this medical condition:

- If, on your departure date, this injury or medical condition had been resolved for at least 30 consecutive days, and
- If this medical condition isn't a chronic illness or a complication of a chronic illness

3. Other exclusions for medical reasons

We won't pay any expenses in the following cases:

- If a physician advised you not to travel
- If you have a terminal illness and your life expectancy is less than 12 months
- If you're taking the trip to receive medical care or services, even if the trip is recommended by a physician
- For optional or non-emergency care, even if you receive it further to an emergency—"optional and non-emergency care" means that it can be obtained in your province of residence without endangering your life or health
- For care, treatment or surgery received for cosmetic purposes and any related complications
- For expenses related to hospital care not covered under the hospitalization insurance plan in your province of residence
- For life-sustaining drugs that you take on an on-going basis, such as insulin, nitroglycerin and vitamins
- For expenses resulting from pregnancy, miscarriage, childbirth or their complications that are incurred after the first 32 weeks of pregnancy
- For expenses incurred after the date you refuse the treatment prescribed by the attending physician or the Assistance Service, or if you refuse to follow any of the following instructions from the Assistance Service:
  - Change hospitals or clinics
  - Undergo a diagnostic examination
  - Return to your province of residence

4. Exclusions related to your participation in certain sports, activities or risky behaviour

We won't pay any expenses in the following cases:

- For an accident that occurs while you're participating in:
  - Any sporting activity for pay (for example, a professional hockey league)
  - Any sporting event for which the winners are awarded cash prizes
  - Any non-standard sport or activity involving a high level of risk, including but not limited to:
    - Hang-gliding and paragliding
    - Parachuting and sky diving
    - Bungee jumping

To find out if you're covered for a sport or activity

Call us at 1-855-368-6924 and choose option 2, or write to us at desjardintravelinsurance@dsf.ca

- For an accident or illness that occurs while you're participating in a riot or criminal act
- For an accident or illness that occurs while you're using narcotics, or abusing drugs or alcohol

Drug abuse means exceeding the dosage recommended by a health specialist.

Alcohol abuse means the consumption of alcohol resulting in a blood alcohol level of more than 80 mg of alcohol per 100 ml of blood.

5. Exclusion related to a trip to a country that the government has advised against visiting

We won't pay any expenses for an accident or illness that occurs while you're travelling in a destination that the Canadian government has advised against visiting or against non-essential travel before your trip begins.

However, we'll accept your claim if you can demonstrate that the particular situation existing in the country visited didn't contribute in any way to the accident, illness or expenses.

3. Trip Cancellation

Covers trips inside and outside your province of residence

Who's insured under this coverage?
Check your Confirmation of Insurance to find out.

We'll reimburse the expenses outlined on pages 13 and 14, depending on your situation, if:

- You have to cancel or modify a trip for one of the 18 causes below (pages 11 and 12)
- You were reasonably unaware that this cause would occur at the time this coverage was obtained, your trip was purchased or the expenses were incurred, and

We reserve the right to have the injured or sick person examined by a physician of our choosing.

- 2. Your travelling companion has to cancel or interrupt their trip due to one of the recognized causes described in this section.

- 9. The company where you've been working for at least one year shuts down due to a lock-out or declares bankruptcy.
- 10. You involuntarily lose your permanent employment that you have had with the same employer for more than one year.

Permanent employment is non-seasonal employment under a contract of unlimited duration for which you're paid at least 20 hours per week.

11. A disaster causes significant damage to your main residence in your province of residence or to your business.
12. Your cruise is cancelled due to mechanical problems, grounding or quarantining of the cruise ship or it has been diverted due to bad weather.

OR

The common carrier or a vehicle is delayed due to a traffic accident or emergency road closure by police (police report required).

This delay must result in you missing the departure of a common carrier vehicle used during your trip and force you to change your travel arrangements. In all cases, you must have planned to be at the point of departure at least 3 hours before the scheduled departure time.

14. A travel service supplier declares bankruptcy.
  - The bankruptcy must result in you definitively losing at least some of the money you paid for your trip.
  - You must give us the right in writing to sue the travel service supplier on your behalf for the amount paid.
  - The travel service supplier must have an office in Canada and hold all the licences and operating certificates required by the competent Canadian authorities.

Expenses reimbursed

2 things to know before you keep reading

1. For any trip:
  - Reimbursement of your living expenses is limited to $200 per day and $2,000 in total
  - Reimbursement of your other expenses is limited to your insurance amount

 Your insurance amount is indicated in your Confirmation of Insurance.
2. If your travel service supplier offers a trip cancellation refund, no amount is payable under the coverage for the amount refunded. We consider any amount you receive and any travel vouchers offered to you to be a refund, whether you accept them or not.

1. If you have to completely cancel your trip or cruise due to one of the recognized causes

We'll reimburse the non-refundable fees you paid in advance to a travel service supplier on the date the cause for cancellation occurs.

Cancel your trip as soon as you can!

You need to cancel your trip as soon as possible, because we only reimburse the expenses that were non-refundable at the time the cause of the cancellation occurred. If you wait to cancel your trip, your travel service supplier may charge a penalty that we won't reimburse.

But, if you cancel your trip because the Canadian government advises against visiting your destination, the travel advisory must still be in effect 14 days before your departure date. That means you need to wait until 14 days before your departure date to cancel your trip.

2. If your travelling companion has to completely cancel their trip due to one of the recognized causes and you decide to still proceed with your trip

We'll reimburse the additional expenses incurred due to the absence of your travelling companion (for example, additional charge for hotel room).

3. If you miss your departure or it's delayed due to one of the recognized causes

We'll reimburse:

- a) The living expenses you incur.
- b) The additional cost for changing the date or time of the ticket you purchased from a scheduled carrier (plane, boat, train, bus).

The new ticket must be a one-way economy ticket and be used to get you to the planned destination by the most direct route.

- c) The unused and non-refundable portion of the costs you paid in advance to a travel service supplier for land arrangements.

Important: Exclusions and limitations

1. Exclusion for injuries or medical conditions that were not stable before purchasing your trip

Since Multi-Trip Annual Insurance only covers sudden and unforeseen events, you may not be covered for an injury or medical condition you were suffering from before the date of the initial payment (partial or total) of the cost of your trip.

If you have an injury or medical condition that is not stable in the 90 days prior to the date of the initial payment (partial or total) of the cost of your trip, you aren't covered if you have to cancel or modify your trip because of this injury or medical condition, or any related injury or medical condition. This exclusion applies even if you had declared the injury or medical condition in the medical questionnaire or if a physician told you that you could travel.

To determine if an injury or medical condition is not stable, answer the following question for EACH injury or medical condition and for EACH trip. Refer to the timeline below as needed. In case of doubt, contact your physician or us for assistance.

During the 90 days right before the date of the initial payment (partial or total) of the cost of your trip, were you suffering from an injury or medical condition that was not stable? An injury or medical condition is not stable if:

- You had new symptoms or the existing symptoms were more frequent or more intense
- You consulted a physician or are waiting to consult one (except for a routine check-up)
- A physician recommended that you undergo a test or be seen by another physician, you underwent a test or you're waiting for the results
- You had surgery, were hospitalized for at least 18 consecutive hours or a physician recommended that you have surgery
- You started a new treatment, including a new drug, or a new treatment was prescribed, or
- You had a change in treatment or medication (quantity, frequency or the medication itself) or this change was prescribed

We don't consider a routine adjustment to insulin or Coumadin, or the replacement of a brand-name drug for an identical generic drug if the dose is the same, to be a change of medication.

Here's a timeline to help you answer:

Answer: No: This exclusion doesn't apply to you.

Yes: This exclusion applies to you. You aren't covered if you have to cancel or modify your trip because of this injury or medical condition, or any related injury or medical condition.

Exceptions for certain minor medical conditions

(Pssst!) If you answered Yes to the above question and your medical condition is a cold, flu, ear infection, sinus infection, sore throat or tonsillitis, you're covered for this medical condition:

7. Exclusion related to the cancellation of an activity you had planned

7. Cost of insurance

What you need to know about the premium

The premium is the cost of your Multi-Trip Annual Insurance contract.

You must pay the entire premium in one single payment for your contract to start or be renewed. The premium will be debited from a chequing or credit card account.

The premium for your annual contract isn't refundable after the beginning of the coverage period.

Details about the renewal premium

When you purchase a Multi-Trip Annual Insurance contract, you authorize us to debit the premium that applies each year for the renewal (see Contract renewal on page 29).

We'll collect this premium in the same way we collected the previous premium. Since the premium must be paid for your contract to be renewed, you should notify us of any changes to your postal or email address, or to your chequing account or credit card. If you don't, we won't be able to notify you about the renewal or collect the required premium.

Premium calculation

We calculate your premium based on:

- The age of each insured on the coverage start date or the date of the last renewal
- The number of days covered per trip
- The coverages selected
- The insurance amounts selected
- The health of each insured in certain age groups

Your premium also includes applicable taxes.

We may reduce your premium as part of a promotion.

8. Insurance modifications

If you extend a trip

Your insurance must cover the entire duration of each trip you take. If you decide to extend a trip beyond the number of days covered per trip indicated in your Confirmation of Insurance, you must also extend your insurance for this trip. If you don't, we may refuse any claim submitted with respect to this trip.

Here's what you need to do:

- Ask us to extend your insurance for all the days added to your trip and pay the required premium before the coverages end
- For Emergency Health Care: Make sure that you're covered under a government health and hospitalization plan for the entire duration of your trip, including any added days

We'll then send you a new Confirmation of Insurance, which will indicate when your coverages end.

 You may have to answer a medical questionnaire. Also, don't wait until the last minute, as we may refuse your extension request due to your health.

If you want to increase an insurance amount

If you want to increase an insurance amount, you have to request the increase and pay the required amount (the premium) before leaving your province of residence.

We'll then send you a new Confirmation of Insurance, which will indicate the change made to your contract.

Important: Exclusion for injuries or medical conditions that were not stable prior to the extension or increase

1. Are you extending your insurance after your departure? Does your contract include Emergency Health Care?

- The exclusion for injuries or medical conditions that were not stable (see page 8) also applies to the extension period. This means that you aren't covered during the extension period for any injury or medical condition that was not stable in the 182 days (90 days if you're under age 55 or if you purchased the Stable for 3 months option) prior to when you purchased the extension.
- To determine if an injury or medical condition was not stable, follow the instructions and answer the questions under this exclusion on page 8 by replacing the words your departure date with the words the date the extension was purchased.

2. Are you increasing the insurance amount for Trip Cancellation?

- The exclusion for injuries or medical conditions that were not stable (see page 14) also applies to the amount of the increase. This means that you aren't covered for any injury or medical condition that was not stable in the 90 days prior to requesting the increase.
- To determine if an injury or medical condition was not stable, follow the instructions and answer the questions under this exclusion on page 14 by replacing the words date of the initial payment (partial or total) of the cost of your trip with the words date you requested the increase.

We'll pay any amount payable:

- To the care or service provider, if you haven't paid the charges in question, or

- If we've refunded a portion or all of the premium for the contract (the cost) before receiving your claim

Division of expense reimbursements

In accordance with insurance rules, a person can never be reimbursed for more than the expenses they paid, even if they're covered under more than one insurance contract or plan.

If you make a claim for expenses that are also covered by other insurance (private or public) or by your credit card issuer, we're the "last payer." In other words, we'll only reimburse the portion of expenses that aren't reimbursable under this other insurance. However, if this other insurance also states that it's the last payer or if it includes a coordination of benefits clause, the reimbursement will be divided between it and your Multi-Trip Annual Insurance contract, based on the amounts that should have been paid by each.

Assignment of your right of recourse in the event of a claim (right of subrogation)

In the event of a claim due to damage caused by a third party, you assign us your right to sue this third party and any other right that you may have against them. We'll exercise this recourse on your behalf and at our expense, up to an amount equal to what we paid you for the damage in question.

All the other coverages start on the later of the following:

- The date you leave your province of residence

Trip Cancellation ends on the earliest of the following:

- The date the cause that forces you to cancel your trip before the scheduled departure date occurs
- The date you return to your province of residence
- The date the number of days covered for each trip indicated in your Confirmation of Insurance is up or, if you've extended your insurance for a trip, the end date indicated in the Confirmation of Insurance you received for this extension
- The end date of the coverage period indicated in your Confirmation of Insurance

All the other coverages end on the earliest of the following:

- The date you return to your province of residence
- The date the number of days covered for each trip indicated in your Confirmation of Insurance is up or, if you've extended your insurance for a trip, the end date indicated in the Confirmation of Insurance you received for this extension

Contract renewal

Your Multi-Trip Annual Insurance contract will be renewed each year. We'll advise you in writing at least 30 days before each renewal.

If you don't want to renew your contract, you need to let us know before the beginning of the new coverage period indicated in your Confirmation of Insurance.

Insureds age 61 and older:

- If an insured is aged 61 to 80 on the renewal date: They must answer a medical questionnaire. We'll renew their insurance if we deem them to be in good health. If so, their answers will be valid for 4 years (exception: see Quattrra Advantage for insureds aged 61 to 80 below).
- If an insured is aged 81 or older on the renewal date: They can no longer be covered under the Multi-Trip Annual Insurance contract. They can, however, request insurance for one trip at a time.

Quattrra Advantage for insureds aged 61 to 80

With the Quattrra Advantage, insureds aged 61 to 80 who choose Emergency Health Care or Trip Cancellation don't have to answer the medical questionnaire each year. Their answers to this questionnaire are valid for 4 years, except in the case of the exceptions indicated below.

During this 4-year period, the premium for these insureds won't increase due to changes in their health (but might increase due to other factors).

Exceptions

- An insured aged 61 or older who wants to extend or increase their insurance for a trip may have to answer the medical questionnaire again.
- An insured who is age 81 at time of renewal can no longer be covered under the Multi-Trip Annual Insurance contract, even if they answered the medical questionnaire less than 4 years ago. They can, however, request insurance for one trip, but must answer the medical questionnaire again.
- When 2 or more insureds were required to answer the medical questionnaire at different times, they must all answer this questionnaire 4 years after the first insured answered it. This way all insureds can answer subsequent questionnaires at the same renewal, every 4 years.

Your right to cancel your coverage

You (the contract holder) have 10 days from the date you purchase or renew the contract to read it and to ask us to cancel it if you aren't satisfied. On your request, we'll cancel your contract retroactive to the purchase date indicated in your Confirmation of Insurance.

To cancel your insurance, you have 3 options:

- Call us at 1-855-368-6924 and choose option 4
- Fill out the End Your Coverage form at the end of this policy and send it to us by registered mail, or
- Fill out the Notice of Cancellation of an Insurance Contract you received with this policy and send it to us by registered mail

We'll then refund your premium, unless you've made a claim.

 If you cancel your contract after this 10-day period, we won't refund any amount.

Refund if you cancel a modification to your insurance

If you've requested a modification to your insurance for a trip (extension or increase), you can receive a premium refund in the following situations:

1. If you cancel the modification before leaving on your trip

We'll refund the premium for any modification except for the premium for Trip Cancellation.

2. If you return from your trip sooner than scheduled

We'll refund the premium for any coverage except Trip Cancellation and Emergency Return Trip for the unused coverage period, unless:

- You've made a claim for your trip that we've approved, even if the event for which the claim was made occurred before or during the extension period
- You paid a family premium and not all the insureds returned sooner than scheduled

We may deduct a contract cancellation fee from the amount of your reimbursement.

Contract cancellation

We can cancel your contract in any of the following situations:

- If you make a false statement, whether fraudulent or not
- If you fail or refuse to provide us with information on any of the people insured under your contract
- If you don't authorize us to collect the information needed to determine if we can insure someone or to process a claim from you
- In the case of non-payment of your premium; in this case, we'll send you a notice to inform you that we'll be cancelling your contract if you fail to pay the required premium within 30 days

Coverage termination

We can terminate a given coverage for an insured for their trip that's underway if they refuse the treatment prescribed by the attending physician or the Assistance Service, or if they refuse to follow any of the following instructions from the Assistance Service:

- Change hospitals or clinics
- Undergo a diagnostic examination
- Return to their province of residence

Contract modification

We can make changes to the terms and conditions of your Multi-Trip Annual Insurance contract. Changes will apply at the next renewal.
